1. Ted, I appreciate the opportunity to speak to My people through you, for you are listening and trying to hear Me and transmit Me to others, and so few are trying to hear, hear Me well, and fewer are trying to transmit Me, carefully, and especially, daily. I love you and I bless you and I appreciate you.

2. Please tell My people that I love them and bless them and appreciate them, especially the ones who are trying to hear Me and do truly love Me. I love them. I love them. I love them.

3. Open your doors to Me and I will open your doors to the world and subject to mammon you will not be, but creating and creative be, associating with the foremost minds and knowledge bases of respected forerunners this world has seen. You will excel, you will succeed, you will surpass any and all of your expectations, for you have not even conceived what I am doing, and what I am doing with your students and will do through them.

4. Now open your doors and let Me open My doors and let us speak, and listen to Me and listen daily for My instructions.

5. Ted, My schools, My schools, My schools, I want to talk about My schools, My schools that are now on your mind every day, as you think now about pulling together all My direct words to you on it, and share them with those giants who I've brought you to thus far. I love you and I appreciate your willingness to birth something new, something new, something completely new, through Me, with Me, through Me and with Me, Me calling the shots, making the directives, and uniting My giants in an effort to revitalize My body with My words and My character and utilizing the gifts I have already given them. Write, write, write, and collaborate daily with My giants who will help build what I want built and operationalized by the power of My spirit.

6. Oh Ted, giants, giants, giants I have brought you and will bring you so many more. They don't look at themselves as giants or think of themselves as giants, but they are, and that's one reason I can use them. They are not high-minded or ill thought of, in themselves or by others. They are giants, giants, giants, who have submitted their learning and knowledge and life experiences that I have given them, to Me, for use by Me, for My body, as I choose to use them.

7. They are willing to be used. They are willing to be poured out like a drink offering, and Ted, those giants with those hearts, I can use mightily, mightily, like the world has seen few of, but will see more and more because of the schools I arise through you and those I bring you and those that graduate from your schools.

8. Your quest to put their hand in Mine and accelerate their spiritual maturity, their natural maturity, their knowledge and experience base, as one, as one, in Me, pleases Me, for that is what I am doing. One, one, one, one in Me, My body—one.

9. Now listen to Me as I share directions and directives to you now. Go, clear, clear your desk and listen to Me, listen to Me, listen to Me daily and I will give you daily instructions like you have not experienced yet.

10. You have taught others that I want to give them daily instructions, and Ted, I do, I do, I want to give daily instructions to those who want My daily instructions, My daily touch, My daily embrace, My daily interactions where we exchange what we need to exchange to interexchange and wholly be each others’.

11. Open your doors and I will open My doors and we will operate as one, one, one, to the degree you let Me operate as one with you, in you and through you, to all of your students, graduating them into My big world, and not being subject to their little world, their little world that they came to you in.

12. Significancing, confidencing, taking authority over boundaries and barricades that have beset generations for centuries, your graduates will. I’m so thankful that you have grasped My joy, and grasped your joy, your joy that you will have, and must have, at your graduates excelling and exceeding you, in area after area, arena after arena. Your delight will grow and grow and expand and under gird many who have only been used to competing and controlling.

13. Prayer and freedom is your paramount focus, your primary focus, and always will be. Never lose it. Never lose sight of it. Never stray from your founding purpose—prayer and freedom—intimacy with Me, freedom, freedom, freedom, maturing in Me, for Me, through Me, to My entire body, becoming and acting and performing Me, being Me to all.

14. From prayer and freedom you expand into all directions, all areas, all arenas, all, all, all, with nothing beyond your grasp—nothing Ted, nothing. I am with you. I am in this. I am propelling this. This is not about you and is not yours. You know this deeply. You will always know this. That’s why I can use you. You’re ready, you’re ready, you’re ready. Even in your readiness you think you’re not ready and Ted, it’s Me doing this. It’s Me bringing the giants of Me to Me, to what I want done, and working in concert, hearts exchanged in My interchange of interexchange, of creating the liberty devising experiences of Me for My Mine.

15. Open your doors and online go. Be creative and systematic about creating new courses and delivery systems and schedules and feedback systems for interchange and growth developing communication. Technology utilize fully, for all provision is made.

16. Giants come. Giants in fields of every field come, for they want to be released into freedom to walk with Me in freedom and liberty, to release their gifts and anointings into others without the constraints of those whose only quest is the perpetuation of their own authentication systems.

17. Creative be and creative I will be for I cannot be not creative. Stifled I have been so long by those who I've had so much waiting for, but came to Me not, in ways that I could flow through them. But today, today, today, is a new day, a new dispensation, a new season, and I am teaching Myself like never before, to those who will receive directly from Me.

18. Open your doors with the curriculum I have given you that exists now only in your yellow tablets, charts and graphs and notes I've spoken directly to you; words from Me you've typed into computers, words you've typed as I've spoken, whispered into you, My words, My wanting, My waitings, My yearnings, My now.

19. Seize today, and let no day get beyond your grasp. Flow, flow, flow My river to My Mine as I am flowing and rivering Myself to all who are open and want Me—want Me enough to spend time with Me, want Me enough to change their schedules for Me, want Me enough to awake to write My words when I awake them, want Me enough to stand up to share what I give them when I give them.

20. Open your doors and think not you must wait two years before you open. Two years—will open many doors, many doors, many, many doors will open and you will open and I will open, on platforms of prowess you cannot fully grasp. Do not try to figure all out now, but daily come to Me and share Me and share what we share together, confidencing and significancing My people and bringing them prayer and freedom.

21. Hope, hope, hope university you will be, as people from all four points look in hope to you, what you help build, in concert with Me and My body—one, for them, for Me, for freedom, liberty, and relationships ungraspable, totally ungraspable, at present.

22. Results, results, results university you will be, for way beyond hope will be the tangible results that will become the transformation of souls and spirits—one, one, with Me, and result in positions of power and humility and meekness and healing, healing, de-destitution, creations of Me.

23. Share Me with Mine and hesitate never to share with others that you are starting a school of prayer and freedom for Me, with Me, in Me, by Me, of Me, for My Mine.

24. Thank you for standing up and taking authority over your lack and quibbling not about your promises unfulfilled. Your stand on the value of My promises bring you much, much, much yet to come.

25. Fulfill your academic requirements and more diligent be—daily, daily, daily. Maximum gather, from this time and these courses that I am in, and take part in.

26. Enjoy, gather, glean, glean, glean, gather, grow, glow and thank you.

27. Thank you again for coming to let Me speak tonight.

Not so busy be, not so occupied be, with others, and things necessary, over Me.
Please, please.

28. Me first.
Please.
I thank you.
Doors open.
Open doors.
They come.
They all come.
I do not disappoint.

Thank you.
Thank you.
Thank you.

29. Go to Argentina. This trip is of Me. You have no money, but money comes, for I have spoken and provision is made. $4,000 what, $4,000 what, $4,000 what? Money is a tool. Money is My tool. Money is one of My tools. My tools come forth.

30. Weary not.
Stress not.
Ready be.
Ready be.
Ready be.

31. I come. I call. I confirm. I create. I provision.
Ready be.
Ready be.
Ready be.

32. Reticent be not.
When asked, speak.
Hesitate not.
I come.
I confirm.
I thank you.

33. Let Me say to every hearer/reader, I love you, I love you, I love you.
Thank you for loving Me.
